RELATIONSHIP BUILDING

1. Individualization®

What Is Individualization?

People with strong Individualization talents understand and are intrigued by others' unique qualities. Impatient with generalizations, they focus on the differences among individuals. They instinctively observe each person's style and motivation, how each thinks, and how each builds relationships. They keenly observe other people's strengths and draw out the best in each person. Their Individualization talents help them build productive teams. While some search for the perfect team "structure" or "process," these employees know instinctively that the secret to great teams is casting by individual strengths — so that everyone can do a lot of what they already do well.

Why Your Individualization Is Unique

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

Because of your strengths, you may identify the specific traits or experiences that distinguish one person from the next. When you familiarize yourself with someone, you might be able to predict how the person will react in different situations.

By nature, you are concerned about what individuals think of you. You want them to recognize your ability to involve all kinds of people in groups or activities. Knowing others are watching and judging you probably is highly motivating.

Chances are good that you feel wonderful when people value your innovative and original ideas. You are likely to help them envision what can be accomplished in the coming months, years, or decades.

Driven by your talents, you typically recruit individuals to join teams or work on special projects. You befriend people one by one. You are considered a talent scout — that is, someone who selects people of superior ability in a certain occupation, subject, or sport. You are likely collect the right combination of people with the talents to perform a task.

Instinctively, you are innovative, inventive, original, and resourceful. Your mind allows you to venture beyond the commonplace, the familiar, or the obvious. You entertain ideas about the best ways to reach a goal, increase productivity, or solve a problem. First, you think of alternatives. Then you choose the best option.

How Individualization Blends With Your Other Top Five Strengths

INDIVIDUALIZATION + RESTORATIVE

A person with a common problem will never get a common solution from you. You customize your solutions for each individual.

INDIVIDUALIZATION + ARRANGER

You can form a talented team by having the best person in every role and at the same time, the perfect role for every person.

INDIVIDUALIZATION + ANALYTICAL

You notice elegant simplicity in complex realities and individual uniqueness in human diversity.

INDIVIDUALIZATION + STRATEGIC

You appreciate the rich diversity of humanity, and you can see and consider a broad range of possible options.

Apply Your Individualization to Succeed

Explain how different people can do their best work together.

- ☐ Support others in discovering and appreciating what they do best, and then encourage them to work on projects and tasks that let them be successful.
- ☐ Help people become more aware of others' unique needs. Because you naturally notice how an individual thinks and builds relationships, people will come to you for insights into other people's motivations and actions.

EXECUTING

2. Restorative™

What Is Restorative?

People with strong Restorative talents love to solve problems. While some are discouraged when they encounter yet another breakdown, this energizes those with strong Restorative talents. They enjoy the challenge of analyzing symptoms, identifying what is wrong and finding the solution. They like bringing things back to life by fixing them or rekindling their vitality. In short, they bring courage and creativity to problematic situations.

Why Your Restorative Is Unique

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

IndividualizationRestorative*Arranger*Analytical*Strategic

By nature, you may strive to produce tangible results each day. Perhaps your need to excel impels you to identify what you might improve about yourself, someone else, or some thing.

Driven by your talents, you now and then yearn to acquire additional knowledge or skills. Perhaps you use these to do certain things better, more perfectly, or more completely than you have in the past.

Instinctively, you gravitate toward people who speak truthfully when you ask for constructive criticism and honest feedback. You especially seek information about areas where you need to perform better, eliminate deficiencies, or make upgrades.

Because of your strengths, you may notice how people are distinct from one another. These insights periodically prompt you to find ways to work better with people. Perhaps you even discover how individuals might partner with a few others in the group.

It's very likely that you periodically think about what you need to upgrade or do better. What you discover may help you determine the number of things you can handle simultaneously. Perhaps you produce some of your finest results when you have more than one thing to do.

How Restorative Blends With Your Other Top Five Strengths

RESTORATIVE + INDIVIDUALIZATION

A person with a common problem will never get a common solution from you. You customize your solutions for each individual.

RESTORATIVE + ARRANGER

Sometimes you improve circumstances by rearranging multiple realities and sometimes by resolving complex problems.

RESTORATIVE + ANALYTICAL

Your ability to recognize patterns helps you when you encounter real problems that require logical solutions.

RESTORATIVE + STRATEGIC

Your ability to see and willingness to consider all available options allow you to bring creativity to your problem-solving efforts.

Apply Your Restorative to Succeed

Identify simple problems with big potential for improvement.

- ☐ Volunteer to help with quick fixes for issues you notice. While a simple fix may be easy for you to see, it may be elusive to others when contending with the same problems.
- ☐ Be patient when addressing complex situations with many components. Acknowledge that fully restoring such processes can take time.

EXECUTING

3. Arranger®

What Is Arranger?

Arrangers are conductors. When faced with a complex situation involving many factors, people with strong Arranger talents enjoy managing all of the variables, aligning and realigning them until they are sure they have arranged them in the most productive configuration possible. They are shining examples of effective flexibility, whether they are changing travel schedules at the last minute because they found a better fare or are mulling over just the right combination of people and resources to accomplish a new project. From the mundane to the complex, they are always looking for the perfect configuration.

Why Your Arranger Is Unique

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

IndividualizationRestorative*Arranger*Analytical*Strategic

Driven by your talents, you have “aha!” moments. Amid chaos, efficiency presents itself. Your mind naturally sees new and better options in the midst of commotion.

It’s very likely that you easily readjust and rearrange when necessary. You are confident that your modifications will result in progress.

By nature, you are drawn to teams in which members rely on you to simplify everyday duties and tasks. You can provide them with appropriate rules and systems to handle recurring activities and events. You expect each person to faithfully use these rules and systems. You truly appreciate those who regularly follow your directions. You tend to become aggravated with individuals who do things the old way or their own way, thus causing systems to fail.

Instinctively, you understand what makes each person unique. You also know how to take apart an object or trace the steps of a process. You combine your knowledge about people with your insights about the inner workings of things. This explains why you can help individuals with different talents, experiences, expertise, and skills find ways to cooperate with one another.

Because of your strengths, you accomplish more than many of your teammates accomplish. You tend to be driven from within to do more work or better work today than you ever have in the past. You are apt to be motivated to be the winner when your performance, grades, productivity, or profits are compared to those of others. You likely know how to find the most efficient way to use available time, money, materials, or human resources.

How Arranger Blends With Your Other Top Five Strengths

ARRANGER + INDIVIDUALIZATION

You can form a talented team by having the best person in every role and at the same time, the perfect role for every person.

ARRANGER + RESTORATIVE

Sometimes you improve circumstances by rearranging multiple realities and sometimes by resolving complex problems.

ARRANGER + ANALYTICAL

You take puzzles apart to clarify and simplify. You put puzzles together to improve performance.

ARRANGER + STRATEGIC

Before you seek to manage multiple realities, you consider and evaluate multiple possibilities. Before you juggle, you sort.

Apply Your Arranger to Succeed

Help people figure out better ways of working together.

- ☐ Come up with different ways to become more efficient. Look for redundancy and impediments in the processes you follow the most often so you can find new ways of doing them.
- ☐ Look for chances to work in complex, dynamic environments that let you coordinate and develop strategies for getting things done. This will bring out your best.

STRATEGIC THINKING

4. Analytical®

What Is Analytical?

People with strong Analytical talents challenge others to prove it. They take a critical approach to what others might quickly accept as truth. They search for the reasons why things are the way they are. They want to understand how certain patterns affect one another: how they combine, the outcome and if the result fits with the theory or the situation. Others see them as logical and rigorous. Some might feel that they are negative or unnecessarily critical when they are simply trying to understand something. They bring an objective and dispassionate examination to things enabling them to find the causes and effects, and then developing clear thoughts based on facts.

Why Your Analytical Is Unique

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

Individualization	Restorative	Arranger	Analytical	Strategic
-------------------	-------------	----------	------------	-----------

Instinctively, you normally find just the right words at the right moment to express whatever you are thinking and feeling. Many people are likely to appreciate your fine speaking abilities. You can present your ideas in a reasonable, sequential, and methodical way. Moreover, you generate lots of options for others to consider.

It's very likely that you may have a fascination with numerical data or research findings. Given the choice, you might prefer reading these types of reports rather than other forms of written material. Perhaps filling your mind with numbers-oriented information delights you. Occasionally you may surprise yourself or others by recalling and using something you read days, weeks, months or even years ago.

By nature, you may approach certain win-lose situations in a practical and realistic manner. When you are intent on being victorious, perhaps you extinguish any sentimental feelings you might have toward your rivals.

Driven by your talents, you are a rational thinker. You rely on reason to investigate what started a chain of events. You collect and study evidence. Then you pinpoint the key parts of a machine, idea, problem, or process. You discard bits of information that are irrelevant to your research.

Chances are good that you enjoy devoting your mental energy to thought-provoking activities. Usually these tasks force you to rely on reason and rational thinking.

Your mind can find a way through a multiplicity of future options and find truth in the complexity of a present reality.

Apply Your Analytical to Succeed

Find ways to express and put your thoughts into action.

- ☐ Find credible data and facts to help support your thinking. Use these sources of information to reinforce your thought process when talking with others.
- ☐ Provide simple, logical and objective advice to the people that matter most to you. Your ability to uncover the essential facts can transform complex situations into understandable actions.

STRATEGIC THINKING

5. Strategic®

What Is Strategic?

People with strong Strategic talents can sort through the clutter to find the best route. You can't teach this skill. It is a distinct way of thinking — a unique perspective on the world at large. This outlook allows them to see patterns where others see complexity. Mindful of these patterns, they envision alternative scenarios, always asking, "What if this happened?" This recurring question helps them see, plan and prepare for future situations. They see a way when others assume there is no way. Armed with this strategy, they move forward.

Why Your Strategic Is Unique

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

IndividualizationRestorative*Arranger*Analytical*Strategic

By nature, you know that patterns can emerge slowly. So when you make a plan, you constantly reevaluate to see if there are new, better options, and you willingly change your strategy when it makes sense.

Because of your strengths, you are good at avoiding bad decisions because you are always thinking one step ahead. By picturing what could happen, you put yourself in a position to make good choices.

Chances are good that you may be attracted to assignments that demand original and inventive thinking. In some cases, you track down new ideas, facts, or data. Your out-of-the-box thinking might challenge some people to abandon, or at the very least to question, specific conventional practices. When you cause one or two of them to suggest options, maybe their need to protect the status quo will be replaced by a desire to gather more information.

Driven by your talents, you focus on uncertainties and develop plausible scenarios based on the full range of possible outcomes. Some may think you are an optimist, and others might think you are a pessimist, but you view yourself as a realist.

Instinctively, you may have acquired expertise in specific areas. Occasionally you spend time considering several courses of action before choosing one. Perhaps you invent original or innovative techniques for dealing with expected or unexpected challenges. Maybe you use the same approach to take advantage of promising opportunities.

How Strategic Blends With Your Other Top Five Strengths

STRATEGIC + INDIVIDUALIZATION

You appreciate the rich diversity of humanity, and you can see and consider a broad range of possible options.

STRATEGIC + RESTORATIVE

Your ability to see and willingness to consider all available options allow you to bring creativity to your problem-solving efforts.

STRATEGIC + ARRANGER

Before you seek to manage multiple realities, you consider and evaluate multiple possibilities. Before you juggle, you sort.

STRATEGIC + ANALYTICAL

Your mind can find a way through a multiplicity of future options and find truth in the complexity of a present reality.

Apply Your Strategic to Succeed

Think ahead to gain perspective.

- ☐ Take time to fully plan your path forward. While you easily see patterns where others see complexity, it is important to make time to envision these alternative scenarios.
- ☐ Practice explaining your decision-making process before talking with others. Doing this ensures people know you have considered different options and opinions to inform your decision.
